NOTICE OF TAKING VIDEO 30(b)(6) DEPOSITION
30(b)(5) DOCUMENT REQUEST

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, pursuant to Rules 30(b)(5)&(6) and 34, of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff will take the deposition of Defendant PREMIER MORTGAGE upon oral examination before an officer authorized by law to administer oaths. Pursuant to Rule 30(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure said deposition will be recorded by an authorized stenographer and videotaped.

Said deposition shall commence at 10:00 A.M. Local Time, on WEDNESDAY, January 10, 2007, at a location of mutual agreement between the parties, and shall continue and/or be resumed from time to time thereafter until same is completed.

Pursuant to Rule 30(b)(5) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff includes herewith document requests pursuant to Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Although included with, and as a part of this deposition notice, Plaintiff requests that PREMIER MORTGAGE produce the documents requested in accordance with the Federal Rules and in compliance with the Parties agreement as memorialized in their Report of Planning Meeting filed with the court, and any subsequent Orders emanating therefrom. That is, said documents are to be produced no later than thirty (30) days from the date of service of this notice and document request. Plaintiff's counsel reserves the right to review all documents produced on the day of the deposition prior to commencement of testimony regardless of the time stated herein for the start of said deposition. The reasonable time expended by Plaintiff's counsel reviewing documents produced the day of the noticed deposition shall not be subtracted from the total time allowed per deposition as set forth in the Report of Planning Meeting filed with the court, and any subsequent Orders emanating therefrom.

Plaintiff further requests, pursuant to Rule 30(b)(6), that PREMIER MORTGAGE produce for deposition a witness, or multiple witnesses, knowledgeable and capable of providing substantive testimony about the documents and item categories requested below. No less than five (5) days prior to the date of the deposition, Plaintiff request that PREMIER MORTGAGE identify the individual(s) to be proffered and the subject matter known or reasonably available to PREMIER MORTGAGE for which each witness proffered.

Plaintiff's detailed requests for documents and testimony below are subdivided into five (5) general categories. Each category may require PREMIER MORTGAGE to proffer more than one witness in order to comply with the Rules identified above. Plaintiff does not expect PREMIER MORTGAGE to produce in duplicate those documents previously produced pursuant to the required Initial Disclosures and/or any other discovery previously propounded by Plaintiff.

Definitions:

The following definitions are intended to explain and narrow the requests below. Nothing within these definitions is intended to expand or change the normal, usual or customary meaning of any word or phrase. The intent of these definitions is to include mortgage lending terminology that may vary between lenders:

Loan Officer: Is intended to include that category of employee and/or independent contractor which has as part of his or her responsibilities the origination of mortgage loans. Other names that you may use are loan representative, account executive, customer service representative, etc.

Instructions:

Plaintiff limit their inquiry in time and scope to the state of Alabama, and for a period of five (5) years next preceding the date Plaintiff's original 1003 application was obtained.

Any objections made to the production of documents or testimony requested below on the basis of confidentiality, privilege, work product, propriety information, trade secrets, privacy laws, or other grounds, should be stated precisely, with particularity, supported by authority and in sufficient detail to allow Plaintiff to formulate a response. Said objections, if any, shall be accompanied by a complete and descriptive log of each and every document or thing subject to your objection.

Where the following requests seek original documents, Plaintiff request that said originals, bearing original signatures, endorsements, and/or stamps, be produced at the deposition. Copies of those originals should be produced in advance of the deposition in accordance with Rules 34 and 30(b)(5) in order to expedite the depositions. However, prior production of copies does not satisfy the request for that the original documents be made available at deposition.
